STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA - BUREAU OF ADMINISTRATION - OFFICE OF RECORDS MANAGEMENT - CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, From this day forward we the Indian people of this great land called America, do hereby set aside a day to honor the American Indian for his deeds, honor and respect due him.

WHEREAS, As our white brothers have their Washington, Lincoln, and other great men, so shall it be for our great people, who have defended your way of life from foreign enemies, and our great leaders who went down defending our way of life.

WHEREAS, Let it be known that we the Indian People of America will not hesitate to defend, and right any wrongs against our freedom for all people in the future.

WHEREAS. We have respected the laws, religious teachings, and other cultural arts brought to us by our white brothers for which we are grateful.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota proclaim June 25, 1970, as

INDIAN DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capitol City, this 9th day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy.
